To Whom it May Concern

SUBJECT: Tamar Chachibaia

On behalf of our University, I would like to express in advance my appreciation for your readiness to collaborate with and support the application of Ms. Tamar Chachibaia to continue her important work in the utilization of nanotechnology in the sphere of oncology.

It is my special privilege and pleasure to provide a reference for Ms. Chachibaia, who is eager to work in connection with her research plans in nanotechnology. She is most interested in finding partners abroad who share her interests. She is looking for further study and collaboration in the National University of Singapore, in the Department of Chemical & Biomolecular Engineering.

Tamar is a physician, published scholar, and candidate for the degree of Doctor of Philosophy with a special interest in the development of certain research of novel drug delivery systems (DDS).

Tamar is bright, diligent, personable, and highly professional. Moreover, she has all the required qualifications of a first-rate researcher.

Tamar Chachibaia has my highest recommendation to be designated as a visiting scholar in the National University of Singapore.

Sincerely,

Handwritten signature of Edward R. Raupp in black ink.

Dr. Edward R. Raupp
Chancellor
